Copy of letter from the Collector of South Kanara L.Dis. 478-27 dated 6th February 1927.

Excise (South Kanara) Mangalore Taluk--Panambur and Bangrakulur villages - liquor shops- location.

Reference:- Government (Revenue Department) Memorandum 76-D/27-1 dated 8-1-27.

(a) There is only one toddy shop in Panambur village and there is no arrack shop in this village.

In Bangrakulur village, there are no liquor shops, but there are one toddy and one arrack shop in the adjoining village in Padukodi.

(b) There is no church in Panambur village near the Toddy shop. But there is one 'Local Board's Girls' School conducted in a rented building and there are two temples ~~t~~ one to the West and ~~the~~ another to the east of the toddy shop. The distances to this School and the temples from the toddy shop are reported to be:--

From the school - Half a furlong

From the 1st temple - 1339 links or about 1¼ furlongs

- do - 2nd Temple - 1320 links or about 1¼ furlongs.

The site of the Toddy shop is in Government land and it is reported that there are no other suitable sites in the village.

(c) A site has been alienated to the Taluk Board for the -- Girls' School not yet constructed. The site is about ¼ a furlong from the toddy shop. The Roman Catholic church of St. Anthony and the School referred to in the Government Memorandum are reported to be in Padukodi village and the distances from this church and the school to the liquor shops of this village are:--

From the toddy shop to the school - 10 chains and 15 links

- do-- --- church - 12 chains and 15 links.

From the arrack shop to the school - -- 16 chains and 31 links.

-----do-------- church -- 18 chains and 31 links.

4

The Revenue Inspector also reports that the School and the Church are on an elevated place, that the above distances are the shortest distances, and that the liquor shops have been working in the existing sites for many years. He also reports that there is a school in Bangrakuluru village which is at a distance of 13 chains and 68 links and 7 chains and 37 links from the toddy and arrack shops respectively of Padukodi village.
